

When It Gets Hard: A Reminder and a Plan

Four feelings almost every first-gen student meets, what they mean, and one thing to do about each.

Imposter Syndrome and Code-Switching

- Feeling like a fraud does not make you one. Name it. Keep a list of your wins.
- Code-switching is being fluent, not fake. Find one space where you do not have to translate.

Home sick?

Missing home is not a mistake. Schedule a regular call home.

New here?

Doubt means you are new, not that you do not belong. Talk to one person.
